

I have completed my Bachelor of Technology on Mechanical domain and I was also one of the top performers in my batch. I worked in a project on my domain that gives me ultimate knowledge and practical experience about Teamwork and its value. I am an energetic person, an effective communicator, and a quick learner. After academics I was working as an AutoCAD Designer. Now I am learning data science course for shaping my career and want to work as data analyst in this domain.